

Chicago YSA Field Day

About Chicago YSA Field Day:

Chicago Youth Sports Alliance is collaborating with Chicago-area Big Ten Alumni Associations to sponsor and organize a one day athletics and fitness based event for children living in local Chicago communities. The event promotes the importance of fitness and physical activity through a series of athletic, educational, and team building activities. Additionally, the event allows students from Chicago school systems to experience the excitement of the Big Ten and learn about the importance of higher education through interaction with local Big Ten alumni.
